LOCATION

Dingwall is a popular Highland Market town located approximately 15 miles northwest of Inverness and is accessible via the A9 and the A835. The town has a resident population of over 6,000 but benefits from a much wider catchment population as the administrative centre for Ross & Cromarty as well as being the sub-regional centre for the immediate hinterland.

The proposed development site is located on Tulloch Street, adjacent to the existing Lidl supermarket 0.2 miles north of Dingwall High Street and is bound by the river Peffery on one side.

DESCRIPTION

The site extends to approximately 0.90 Hectares / 2.23 Acres and is bounded by St Clement's School to the west, private housing to the east, the river Peffery to the north and Lidl supermarket to the south.

PLANNING

The Local Plan states that the provision of large scale retail units is key to countering the retail draw to Inverness and the site was granted planning permission in 2013 for 21,000 sq ft of retail accommodation and adjacent car parking.
