

FOUR NEW RESTAURANTS SIGN AT ST.ENOCH CENTRE

St. Enoch Centre’s casual dining offer is going from strength to strength with four new F&B operators announced, including wagamama and Wingstop.

Opening this Autumn, Wingstop has signed a 15 year lease and is set to occupy 3,175 square feet on first floor, near the Vue cinema.

wagamama has signed a 15 year lease and will occupy a 4,435 sq ft restaurant due to open early 2024.

Also opening this Autumn, German doner kebab and chicken restaurant YaYas and local operator Salt and Pepper, which specialises in Asian cuisine.

And following a period of huge success, Starbucks has relocated to a larger 2,763 sq ft unit on the ground floor.

Open Early 2024

The flurry of new F&B signings joins an already impressive line-up of restaurants including, Cosmo and Nando’s, as well as Scotland’s largest food court, The Atrium, and a wide selection of cafés. One final restaurant unit is now available with the redeveloped leisure hub.

New Retail Signings

Thriving retail performance has also resulted in new deals with leading women’s clothing brand Klass, due to open in October, and Glasgow’s flagship Next store opening within the next few months.

“St. Enoch Centre has performed strongly during the first half of 2023, with growing footfall and sales leasing to an impressive array of new signings.

Undeniably, the recent investment of £50m into new retail, dining, and leisure options has fuelled momentum, with the likes of wagamama and Wingstop only standing to further strengthen the centre’s outstanding tenant mix.

With the flagship Next store and leading retailer Klass coming soon, there is no doubt that an optimistic future awaits for Glasgow’s leading city centre destination.”
